D.Pari.(C5)M/129/08, dated:15-6-2008 in confirming the order of the Revenue Divisional Officer, Kavali, Nellore Dist. in his letter No. D.Dis (G)4687/2007, dated:15-12-07, which was received by the appellant on 2-7-2008 is not issuing the SC certificate as illegal, contrary to law, arbitrary and violative of principle of natural justice for the following reasons and grounds of the case.

- a. The petitioner submitted that a student at the time of counseling for admission to the B.Tech course, the father of the petitioner made a representation to the Revenue Divisional Officer, Kavali requesting him to issue a Caste certificate to the petitioner mentioning his caste as Budaga Jangam, which is SC. The Revenue Divisional Officer addressed a letter to the Convener EAMCET – 2007 informing him that in view of the provisions of AP (SC, ST &BC) issue of Community, Nativity and Date of Birth Certificate Rules 1977 that the issue of issuing Budaga Jangam Caste Certificate to the petitioner is under enquiry and therefore the Convener was requested to admit the candidate on the basis of the declaration given by the petitioner/parent of the petitioner. On enquiry an erroneous view of law and fact rejected the claim of the petitioner that he belongs to Budaga Jangam by his proceedings in D.Dis (G) 4687/07, dated: 15-12-2007. Aggrieved by the order of the RDO the petitioner preferred an appeal to the District Collector, Nellore District who confirmed the orders of the Revenue Divisional Officer, dated: 15-12-2007 vide his orders in D. Pari (C5)M 129/2008, dated:15-6-2008 and same was questioned by the petitioner.

The family of the Petitioner belongs to Budaga Jangam community which is Scheduled Caste as per G.O.Ms.No.838, dated: 15-12-1977. In Jangam community there are three sub-castes which are (1) Beda (Budaga) Jangam (2) Mala Jangam and (3) Jangam. Previously they are no special concessions/reservations in Andhra region recognizing the sub-castes in Jangam community and all the people belonging to any of the sub caste were being called as Jangam or Jangalu and certificates were issued without mentioning the sub castes. The Jangam or Jangalu caste people were also not particular in mentioning their sub castes and in the inclusion of their caste in the list of Scheduled Castes in the year 1977, the people who are following the traditions/habits and customs approached the authorities for issuance of caste certificate treating them as Budaga Jangam community. In the petitioners village there are 60 Jangam families, since times immemorial and they are all related by blood. They follow the traditions and customs of the Budaga Jangam community since times immemorial. The guide lines issued by the Government in respect of the Budaga Jangam community are in tune with traditions and customs followed by the petitioner's family.

- c. The petitioner has further stated that the authorities to issue a certificate stating that he belong to Budaga Jangam community which is Scheduled Caste. The authorities without conducting any enquiry in the village and without considering the affidavits / applicants filed by the petitioner rejected the claim of the petitioner. Some of the blood relatives of the petitioner by names (1) Mutyala Anusha D/o Sakhraiah (2) Poeta. Mallikharjunaiah, S/o Pitchaiah (3) Mutyala. Gurnadh, S/o Sankaraiah (4) Mutyala Cheran Sai, S/o Mohan (5) Mutyala Leela Prakash, S/o Gurnadham (6) Gandhavalla Jahnvi, D/o Dasaradharamaiah etc., were issued Caste Certificates treating them as Budaga Jangam community after thorough enquiry by the District Level Scrutiny Committee, Nellore District. Following the guide lines issued by the Hon'ble Court, numbers of persons belonging to Jangam community who follow the traditions of Budaga Jangam community were issued certificates treating them as Scheduled Caste.
